AGENDA

1. OATH

Oath of the Member-Secretary, Delhi Cantonment Board under section 17 of the Cantonments Act, 2006.

2. REVISION OF WARD BOUNDARIES

The Directorate General, Defence Estates, Govt. of India, Ministry of Defence vide letter No.76/38/Cantonments Act/C/DE/06 dated 14.02.2007 had issued elaborate guidelines to Cantonment Boards for division of the Cantonment into wards. The guidelines issued by the Directorate General provides that "It may be ensured that there is near parity in the relative number of electorate of different wards. For this purpose, average voter strength be calculated and 10% variation may be taken as within limits."

Cantonment Board Delhi had initiated process of preparation of Electoral Rolls in terms of provisions contained in Rule 10 of the Cantonment Electoral Rules, 2007 (CER, 2007). The Electoral Rolls prepared for eight wards under Rule 10 of the CER, 2007 for the year 2019 were displayed in the office of the Cantonment Board during the period 01.07.2019 to 20.07.2019 for inviting objections and claims as provided in Rule 13 of the CER, 2007. Hearing of claims and objections received in this regard have been completed and number of electorates in different wards have been finalized details thereof have been placed in the file.

It is pertinent to mention here that last division of Cantonment into wards in Delhi Cantonment was undertaken in the year 2007 and the ward boundaries were notified in the official gazette of Govt. of India, Ministry of Defence vide SRO No.7(E) dated 13.11.2007 and thereafter revision of ward boundaries in Delhi Cantonment have not been carried out.

It is observed that the variation in electorates registered for the year 2019 in different wards does not have parity in relative number of electorates among different wards as per guidelines issued by the Directorate General, Defence Estates, Govt. of India, Ministry of Defence letter No. 76/38/Cantonments Act/C/DE/06 dated 14.02.2007. To comply the guidelines on the subject revision of ward boundaries in Delhi Cantonment is considered necessary at the earliest.

The Board may consider approving revision of ward boundaries to achieve parity in relative number of electorates in eight wards in Delhi Cantonment as per guidelines on the subject. The draft revision of wards alongwith plan and boundaries prepared by the office shall be placed before the Board for approval prior to sending the proposal for consideration of the competent authority. All related documents are placed on the table.
